

Gateway Green Alliance
Universal African Peoples Organization

Black & Green Wednesday

In 2003, Monsanto worked with the FBI and St. Louis police to disrupt a conference and demonstration critical of genetic engineering. In 2006, the FBI investigated Jim Bensman as a suspected terrorist because of his opposition to the Army Corp of Engineers. These are just two cases of police agencies cynically using the 9/11 tragedy to broaden their powers of attack on US citizens. Join this panel discussion...

- Tony Rotherth, Legal Director, Eastern Missouri ACLU
- Barbara Chicherio, Co-coordinator, Green Party of St Louis
- Jim Bensman, Sierra Club & Heartwood Activist
- Madeline Coburn, Gateway Green Alliance [moderator]

7 pm, Wednesday
December 6, 2006

Carpenter Branch Library
3309 South Grand
St. Louis, MO 63118

For more info call 314-727-8554 or visit
www.gateway-greens.org

First they came for the since 9/11
and then they came for me...

Gateway Green Alliance
Universal African Peoples Organization

Black & Green Wednesday

In 2003, Monsanto worked with the FBI and St. Louis police to disrupt a conference and demonstration critical of genetic engineering. In 2006, the FBI investigated Jim Bensman as a suspected terrorist because of his opposition to the Army Corp of Engineers. These are just two cases of police agencies cynically using the 9/11 tragedy to broaden their powers of attack on US citizens. Join this panel discussion...

- Tony Rotherth, Legal Director, Eastern Missouri ACLU
- Barbara Chicherio, Co-coordinator, Green Party of St Louis
- Jim Bensman, Sierra Club & Heartwood Activist
- Madeline Coburn, Gateway Green Alliance [moderator]

7 pm, Wednesday
December 6, 2006

Carpenter Branch Library
3309 South Grand
St. Louis, MO 63118

For more info call 314-727-8554 or visit
www.gateway-greens.org

First they came for the since 9/11
and then they came for me...

Gateway Green Alliance
Universal African Peoples Organization

Black & Green Wednesday

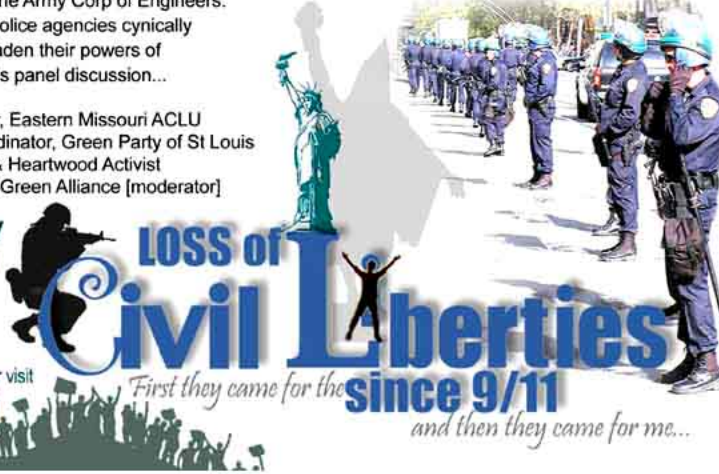

In 2003, Monsanto worked with the FBI and St. Louis police to disrupt a conference and demonstration critical of genetic engineering. In 2006, the FBI investigated Jim Bensman as a suspected terrorist because of his opposition to the Army Corp of Engineers. These are just two cases of police agencies cynically using the 9/11 tragedy to broaden their powers of attack on US citizens. Join this panel discussion...

- Tony Rotherth, Legal Director, Eastern Missouri ACLU
- Barbara Chicherio, Co-coordinator, Green Party of St Louis
- Jim Bensman, Sierra Club & Heartwood Activist
- Madeline Coburn, Gateway Green Alliance [moderator]

7 pm, Wednesday
December 6, 2006

Carpenter Branch Library
3309 South Grand
St. Louis, MO 63118

For more info call 314-727-8554 or visit
www.gateway-greens.org

First they came for the since 9/11
and then they came for me...

Gateway Green Alliance
Universal African Peoples Organization

Black & Green Wednesday

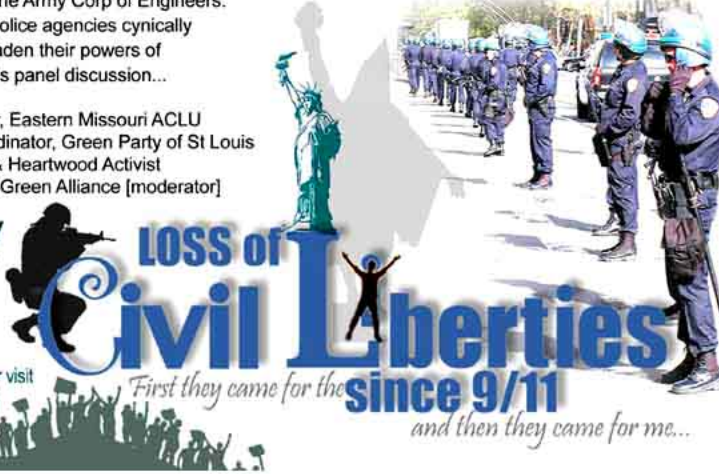

In 2003, Monsanto worked with the FBI and St. Louis police to disrupt a conference and demonstration critical of genetic engineering. In 2006, the FBI investigated Jim Bensman as a suspected terrorist because of his opposition to the Army Corp of Engineers. These are just two cases of police agencies cynically using the 9/11 tragedy to broaden their powers of attack on US citizens. Join this panel discussion...

- Tony Rotherth, Legal Director, Eastern Missouri ACLU
- Barbara Chicherio, Co-coordinator, Green Party of St Louis
- Jim Bensman, Sierra Club & Heartwood Activist
- Madeline Coburn, Gateway Green Alliance [moderator]

7 pm, Wednesday
December 6, 2006

Carpenter Branch Library
3309 South Grand
St. Louis, MO 63118

For more info call 314-727-8554 or visit
www.gateway-greens.org

First they came for the since 9/11
and then they came for me...